EISEMANN CENTER PRESENTS THE REDUCED SHAKESPEARE COMPANY IN THEIR NEWEST HIT: "THE COMPLETE WORLD OF SPORTS (ABRIDGED)"
FOR SIX PERFORMANCES NOVEMBER 18-21, 2010

RICHARDSON, TX — Let the games begin in the ViewPoint Bank Theatre Comedy Series production of Reduced Shakespeare Company in The Complete World of Sports (abridged) for six performances running November 18-21, 2010 at the Eisemann Center. A championship comedy and profound piece of theatre for even the most intractable couch potato, that sprints through the world of sports at record-breaking speed. As America's infatuation with all things athletic continues, The Complete World of Sports (abridged) is a show whose time has come — when all of North Texas is anticipating the upcoming Super Bowl!

From the earliest cavemen playing "Neanderthal in the Middle" to your own kid's soccer practice, the entire history of athletic competition will be regurgitated in a tour de farce of physical theater, at a level of sophistication and pathos that only the RSC can muster. It'll be a marathon of madness and mayhem as the world's great sporting events are shrunk down to theatrical size.

Is bowling really a sport? What about poker or competitive eating? Which is more boring – baseball or cricket? Who invented curling and synchronized swimming and why in the world are they in the Olympics? Can't Tiger Woods demand that the Master's Green Jacket be slightly less green? The bad boys of abridgement are back! So Get Ready! Get Set! LET THE GAMES BEGIN!

"One sketch rapidly gives way to another, and then another, blending slapstick, sight gags, hernia-inducing puns, and genuine verbal wit."

— Boston Globe
