EISEMANN CENTER’S FAMILY THEATRE SERIES
PRESENTS “PINKALICIOUS” OCT 19, 2008

RICHARDSON, TX – The Eisemann Center’s Family Theatre Series’ second show of the season, Pinkalicious, based on the book written by the sisters Elizabeth and Victoria Kann, will appear on Sunday, October 19, 2008 at 2:30 pm. Pinkalicious is a hit in many children’s families. It has already sold about 150,000+ copies. Pinkalicious is fun, educational, has a patent morale and it is all about pink! Mothers love reading the book to their pink-loving girls and now the Eisemann Center is ready to present the musical.

Pinkalicious is an adorable musical about a girl who can’t stop eating pink cupcakes despite warnings from her parents. Her pink indulgence lands her at the doctor’s office with Pinkitis, an affliction that turns her pink from head to toe - a dream come true for this pink loving enthusiast. But when her hue goes too far, and Pinkalicious starts turning pink, what is she going to do? Pinkalicious is there to remind you that sometimes what you have is good enough.

Elizabeth Kann is a doctor turned children’s books author. She and her sister Victoria Kann came up with the idea of Pinkalicious by watching their own kids play. Victoria Kann is an award-winning artist, whose work has graced the cover of various magazines, newspapers, books and now Pinkalicious. The sisters followed up the success of Pinkalicious with the sequel Purplicious.

Pinkalicious is a charming book, and now musical. It has families and critics clapping their hands across country. One Mom said, “For an enchanting and enjoyable read, read Pinkalicious to your daughter and see if she wants to bake pink cupcakes with you. Make a memory with her, and pretend she is pink!” The Bulletin of the Center for Children’s Books hailed, “Winningly direct narration. There’s enough pink tastiness to keep fuchsia fans happy” and Kirkus Reviews wrote, “Kann’s snappy prose is filled with subtle puns and jokes to keep astute readers chuckling”.

Pinkalicious will be playing only on Sunday, October 19, 2008 at 2:30 pm in the Hill Performance Hall.
