STEVE SOLOMON RETURNS TO THE EISEMANN CENTER IN HIS SECOND COMEDY HIT: “MY MOTHER’S ITALIAN, MY FATHER’S JEWISH AND I’M STILL IN THERAPY”
FOR SIX PERFORMANCES RUNNING OCTOBER 21-24, 2010

RICHARDSON, TX — From Steve Solomon, star and creator of the smash hit Broadway show: My Mother's Italian, My Father's Jewish and I'm in Therapy...the chaos continues in the ViewPoint Bank Theatre Comedy Series production of: My Mother's Italian, My Father's Jewish and I'm STILL in Therapy. In this hysterical prequel, we go back with Steve from his baby years with his twin sister right up to the present. We'll meet: Uncle Willie, Stuttering Cousin Bob, Demented Cousin Kenny, Steve's new therapist, Cousin Sal (and Sal's parole officer) and a myriad of astounding characters we know, love and tolerate from our own families; each one brought to life on stage by Steve using his gift for creating voices, dialects and wacky sound effects that only add to the hilarity of each story.

Variety says “Steve is Alan King, Billy Crystal, a smidgen of Don Rickles and George Carlin all thrown in,” while WOR Radio calls the show “an hour and a half of laughter, hysterically funny!” Having headlined throughout the United States and Europe for over twenty years, Steve's stories relate to the wacky side of the human condition. STILL in Therapy is his next hilarious installment in his quest to defend himself against those people whose sole purpose in life is to add chaos to his.

Performances are Thur., Oct. 21 at 8:00 pm and Fri., Oct. 22 at 8:00 pm; Sat., Oct. 23 at 2:00 pm and 8:00 pm and Sun., Oct. 24, 2010 at 2:00 pm and 7:00 pm. To say that an evening spent with Steve Solomon is like being with a dear, funny friend is an understatement. In truth, an evening with Steve is more like being with dozens of hilarious friends and eccentric members of your own family. Steve has taken the art of impersonation and honed it into a science. He masterfully weaves different dialects and crazy characters into his stories. These tales take on a life of their own as Steve recounts memorable moments from his past.

A native of Brooklyn, Steve grew up in the multi-ethnic neighborhood of Sheepshead Bay. This was the perfect training ground for a dialectician. As the class clown and as a very authentic sounding Chinese restaurant delivery boy, Steve learned at an early age how to use his gift for imitating accents to his advantage.

The Eisemann Center is located in the Galatyn Park Urban Center at 2351 Performance Drive in Richardson, Texas. The Eisemann Center is easily accessible from Highway 75 North taking the Galatyn Parkway/Renner Road exit going north and the Galatyn Parkway/Campbell Road exit going south or from the DART light rail station at Galatyn Park.
