EISEMANN CENTER PRESENTS SPECIAL ATTRACTION
“A TUNA CHRISTMAS” DEC. 28, 2010-JAN. 2, 2011

RICHARDSON, TX – A Tuna Christmas returns to the Eisemann Center, for eight performances December 28, 2010-January 2, 2011. The citizens of Tuna, Texas are back and just in time for the holiday season! Join the Tuna characters as they attempt to cope with the traumas and dramas of the holidays!

Now you can forget the traditional feast of ham, turkey, cranberry sauce and mince meat pie because again this year, Tuna will be the “feast of choice.” Possibly best described as a “longhorn version of ‘A Night Before Christmas’,” A Tuna Christmas brings to Eisemann Center Presents those beloved Texans: Didi Snavelly (who runs the used gun shop); her husband, R.R. (who sees UFO’s as his rescue from marriage); Aunt Pearl (who poisons poodles trespassing on her yard); and all their neighbors. They are all on a rampage because a “phantom” is destroying holiday displays before the annual prizes are awarded, they’re battling a bad economy and a local production of A Christmas Carol is endangered by bad actors and a Scrooge-ish electric company.

You won’t want to miss master comedians and original cast members Jaston Williams and Tony Award-nominee Joe Sears as they portray all 24 denizens of Texas’ third smallest town where the “Lion’s Club is too liberal and Patsy Cline never dies.”

Critics have raved: “The show is a hoot, and the cast, Joe Sears and Jaston Williams, is two hoots,” proclaims The New York Times. “This show is so funny. It’s far too good just for Christmas,” states the New York Post. “There’s plenty to ho-ho-ho about. A Tuna Christmas is a delightful gift for longtime Tuna fans and newcomers alike,” states The Dallas Morning News. “If you like someone buy them roses and if you love someone, buy them tickets to A Tuna Christmas!” exclaims the Austin American-Statesman. Bring the whole family and join in the holiday fun!
