

EISEMANN CENTER'S FAMILY THEATRE SERIES CLOSES SEASON
WITH LITTLE MERMAID ON SUN., APR. 11, 2010 at 2:30 PM

RICHARDSON, TX — The Family Theatre Series, sponsored by Friends of the Richardson Library is proud to present Little Mermaid on Sunday, April 11, 2010 at 2:30 pm in the Hill Performance Hall. Little Mermaid is a Broadway for Kids production of American Family Theater. American Family Theater (AFT) is the nation's premier producer of musicals for families and young audiences performs in over 300 venues each year. AFT's award winning productions reflect a critically acclaimed commitment to full-scale presentations that involve the skills, talent and creativity of outstanding directors, designers, composers, performers and technical personnel. All AFT musicals capture the spirit of timeless classics that provide the excitement and magic found only in the live-on-stage experience.

Mera, the Little Mermaid, falls in love with a charming prince when she visits dry land for the first time on her sixteenth birthday. She must return to the sea, but her love for the prince drives her to seek out the powers of the Sea Witch, who can give her the ability to walk and breathe as a human, but only if she wins the love of the prince. Mera must find the prince and win his heart before he marries Lady Angelique. From the wonder of her sea palace to a royal castle, join Hans Christian Anderson's Little Mermaid in this terrific adaptation filled with surprises and fun.
