JACKIE MASON: NO HOLDS BARRED
Sat., Oct. 16, 2010 at 8:00 pm

An Eisemann Center Presents Special Attraction, Jackie Mason is coming to the Eisemann Center direct from Broadway with his one-man show, No Holds Barred on Sat., Oct. 16 at 8:00 pm. Born in Sheboygan, Wisconsin, Jackie Mason was raised on the Lower East Side of Manhattan surrounded by rabbis. His father, grandfather, great-grandfather, and great, great-grandfather were all rabbis, as are his three brothers. No surprise that at age 25, Jackie Mason was ordained a rabbi. Three years later, he quit his job in a synagogue to become a comedian because, as he says, "Somebody in the family had to make a living." Mason is widely regarded as one of the greatest stand-up comics of all time and his stand-up routine is now more popular than ever, combining pungent political satire, insightful observations on the foibles of modern life and impeccable timing to create material that leaves audiences laughing and critics raving. Click on the photo above to go to learn more about Jackie Mason and his long-running career.

Prelude Cafe will be open for pre-show dining. Call 972.367.2000 for reservations.
