Did you know that Bach was Chopin's favorite composer? Become a classical music insider when virtuoso pianist and entertaining storyteller Jeffrey Siegel returns to our stage with a program exploring Bach's influence on Chopin. Hear vivacious dances, dramatic preludes, and romantic, improvisational fantasies by both composers. Delivered with humor and a deep admiration for the music, Mr. Siegel's performance will make you fall in love with this charming music. An interactive Q and A will conclude this program.
